Genting Malaysia Berhad donates RM450,000 for charity

Kuala Lumpur, 10 February 2010 - In conjunction with the Genting Group's 45th anniversary and the upcoming Chinese New Year celebration, Genting Malaysia Berhad is donating RM450,000 to 45 selected charitable organisations including orphanages, welfare homes and training centres for the disabled, among others.

This annual festive season contribution is given out as part of Genting Malaysia's corporate social responsibility initiative to aid charitable organisations in carrying out their programmes and to ease their day-to-day operation costs. This is one of the many regular donation and sponsorship practices conducted by the company annually, besides hosting charitable organisations and welfare homes at Genting Highlands Resort throughout the year.

The donations are presented by Genting Malaysia's President and Chief Operating Officer, Dato' Lee Choong Yan and Genting Berhad's Executive Director, Tan Sri Mohd Amin Osman.

In his speech, Dato' Lee said, the challenging economic situation today makes it even more imperative for the Company to contribute and today's ceremony exemplifies its commitment in reaching out to the needy, regardless of the economic weather.

Besides this, on 19 January 2010, the Genting Group launched its 45th anniversary celebration logo and during the event, Genting Malaysia Berhad announced an array of exciting rewards for all its stakeholders.

“For us at Genting Malaysia, our 45th anniversary presents us with an excellent opportunity to thank our stakeholders for the support rendered throughout the years. More importantly, in conjunction with this auspicious occasion, we are also contributing donations for the betterment of the society. Thus, today’s Festive Season Contribution to 45 charitable bodies is one such way we strive to reflect our corporate social responsibility stance to complement our financial success.” said Dato’ Lee.

For Genting Malaysia, corporate social responsibility has always been an integral part of the company’s DNA. The Company’s CSR efforts are organised along the four core areas of interest namely, workplace, environment, community and marketplace. In this way, it is driven to ensure our employees and guests are well taken care of, its business processes are all environmentally friendly and it substantially aids the development of the local communities. In the community aspect alone, the Company contributes, in cash and kind, to various sectors such as education, sports, youth development, infrastructure support to local communities, the underprivileged, disability groups and NGO’s.
